With Our Sights on the Future

Visioning ~ that is, looking toward the future and planning for it ~ is crucial if a church is to survive and thrive, especially now when churches are closing their doors at an alarming rate, every single day. Picking up where St. John's Vision Task Force left off approximately 10 years ago after accomplishing several significant goals, a Visioning Team was formed this past fall to begin exploring how best to embrace St. John's core values and share these values both within and beyond our faith community. In so doing, it is our desire to position ourselves to be a thriving church doing God's work for years to come.

As a diverse group of 14 St. John's members combed through the core values identified by the previous Task Force, these are the values that rose to the top of the list: nurturing our children and youth; finding ways to more fully embrace our Open and Affirming status; finding ways to reach out to the community with our "drawing the circle wide" message and our openness to being the church in ways that meet the needs of both a new generation and individuals of all ages seeking to experience the living God; and intentionally claiming our identity as a church committed to creation justice (a commitment that involves being good stewards of the environment, as well as being a people willing to address the injustices of income inequality that push the most vulnerable among us to the edge and into the margins of life in our world).

The primary goal of the Visioning Team is not to create yet one more program or committee, but rather to start with examining closely what we are doing that works and look for creative ways to enhance these activities to better embrace our core values. How can we integrate our children and youth, along with their families, into the life of the church by creatively involving them in the planning and carrying out of worthwhile experiences? What can we do with the resources we have to get the word out about St. John's and its openness to people from all walks of life? How might we make better use of social media and technology to connect with a generation accustomed to navigating the world using these channels? How can we as a congregation foster a culture of caring for God's Creation and our neighbor in need in such a way that doing so becomes part of the very fabric of our being?

Visioning is not a once and done activity. Our Team will not present a report and go away. For our visioning to make a difference, we, as St. John's wonderfully motley crew, will need to claim ownership for our future together. Maya Angelou wisely advised, "If you must look forward, do so prayerfully." Those words follow her reminder "If you must look back, do so forgivingly" and precede this important admonition: "However, the wisest thing you can do is to be present in the present. Gratefully." Please join us as we prayerfully look toward the future while living fully and gratefully today.

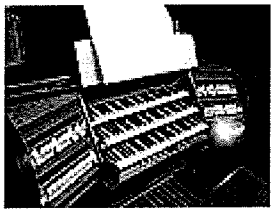
David Furniss Announces His Retirement



St John's Minister of Music, David Furniss, has announced his plans to retire this summer. David has been with St John's since September 1987. We will miss him and the many musical gifts that he shared with us every week. We wish him all the best in his retirement.

The Personnel Committee has formed a Search Committee to help with the identification, evaluation, and selection of a qualified replacement. The Search Committee is chaired by Liz Vanderburg and includes members of the Personnel Committee, the Finance Committee, Council leadership, the various choirs and ensembles, and our Senior and Associate ministers. In addition, several Search Committee members are representing the many "pew sitters" who enjoy and appreciate the enormous musical tradition St John's provides our members and the community. Our music programs play an important role in bringing new people in the doors, reaching into the community in various ways, and attracting new members who appreciate and/or participate in the varied offerings.

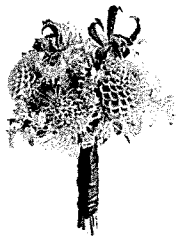
The Search Committee has been meeting regularly to define the selection criteria, solicit resumes, conduct phone interviews, and audition the best qualified individuals. The Committee expects an offer of employment to be made before the end of March. Stay tuned for further updates.

The Search Committee.

Manna on Main Street will soon be providing meals for the Senior Adult Activities Center of Montgomery County (Montco SAAC) for their daily group meal and Meals on Wheels program. On February 3 we began serving hundreds of Montgomery County seniors! We are grateful for this service and contract opportunity.

To provide this resource for our homebound community, we need additional volunteer support! We are seeking volunteers who could commit to a once-weekly service to help prepare and package these meals. Of course, we thought of St. John's, as so many in the church are committed to community ministry and have a long history of embracing and supporting Manna's mission. These shifts are roughly two hours long, and some of the work can be done from a seated position. If you are interested in being part of this new program, please contact Meg Currie Teoh, Volunteer Director, at meg@mannaonmain.org. Thank you for your consideration!

Here is the chancel flower donation list for March 2020. Please review this list and contact the church office if you would like to remove, add, or update any information.



Reminder ~ The requested donation for the chancel flower listing is $25. Thank you!

Feel free to deliver the flowers to whomever you want—anyone who is celebrating a birthday or anniversary, people who are ill or in the hospital, people who need a little extra care. The people you deliver to do not need to be members of St. John's. They can be your friends, loved ones, and neighbors. The flower ministry is part of our outreach.

The flower room is through the door on the left side of the chancel where the pastor preaches. All the supplies you will need are in this room: Plastic Vases, St. John's Address Directory, and Cards

Please take the flowers out of the brass vases and put them into the plastic floral containers located on the shelves in the flower room. Leave the green plastic liners in the brass vases, they belong to the florist. Please include a card for each bouquet. There will be a copy of these instructions in the flower room. If you are out of town on your assigned Sunday, please switch with someone else. Again, many thanks for being a part of St. John's flower ministry.

What's Happening in Church Council?

Financial Report: Sandy and Bob Taylor, Cotreasurers: Including the planned transfer from our investments, our January income of $47,733 fell short of our expenses of $49,656. Our income was on budget, but our expenses were a bit high due mostly to higher than normal, nonrecurring building maintenance expenses. This month's shortfall is not thought to be indicative of an ongoing problem. We committed to a 2020 "Our Church's Wider Mission" (OCWM) contribution of $46,460, or about $3,872 a month. January contributions to OCWM totaled $4,069. We're off to a good start this year. Please feel free to share your questions or concerns with our Cotreasurers, Sandy and Bob Taylor.

Staff Reports:

Rev. Dr. Sue Bertolette, Senior Pastor:
Five people attended a new-member informational gathering. Lenten Study will begin on Wednesday, March 4. The program will be "Faith That Works: A Practical Guide to Including Our Faith in Everyday Life." The program will continue on Wednesday, March 11 and 25, and April 1.

Old Business:
Minister of Music Search Update
David announced his planned resignation for summer of 2020 in summer 2019. The Personnel Committee, led by Liz Vanderburg, formed a Search Committee of musical and nonmusical members. Ads were placed in the AGO (American Guild of Organists) publications locally and internationally. Twenty-two resumes were received. Work on the resumes narrowed the field to eight for phone interviews. Three live interviews were held based upon phone interviews. The three candidates interacted with the choir with a rehearsal, playing both an organ and piano piece and directing the choir. There was a question-and-answer period after the live interview with the candidate. The selection process is ongoing.

A Council member questioned whether the potential Minister of Music would audition for the congregation, which would then have a vote on the candidate. Rev. Sue stated that the congregation is involved in the hiring of staff only when pastors are called.

New Business:
Creation Justice Covenant*
Don Atkiss discussed the proposed Creation Justice Initiative for St. John's. A group will be formed to discern an inventory of actions needed to enable St. John's to "grow green." He asked each Board to consider ways to integrate these actions into their Board, keeping Creation Justice as part of their way of life. He stated the church is already doing many of the items required to be certified in this program.
Creation Justice meetings will be held via Zoom Chat. Creation Justice will be placed on St. John's Facebook page with the hope of attracting families and young people.
*See the next page for a description of the Creation Justice Covenant from the UCC website.

Before the Flood*
Steve Bossert would like to show the movie Before the Flood on three successive Sunday mornings during the Sunday School hour, beginning close to Earth Day on April 22.
*See a synopsis of Before the Flood on page 7.

Stained Glass Windows
Our Stained Glass Windows brochure will be updated with new high-resolution digital photos. Aly Faga will combine them with the current descriptions in a new brochure.

Visioning Team Update
Rev. Sue stated there are 14 members who continue to diligently work on the vision for St. John's so that we, as a community of faith, will continue to thrive in the future. See an update of the Team's work on the front page of this Enlightener.

UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Creation Justice Covenant

In affirming the divine gifts of creation and in affirming our connection to God, each other, and the world around us, we unconditionally commit ourselves as individuals and as a congregation to the intertwined responsibilities of caring for creation and seeking justice for the oppressed. With purposeful resolve, we commit ourselves with an awareness of how the abuses of creation inevitably cause human suffering and of how factors such as race, class, and global inequality inevitably cause some to suffer more than others. Furthermore, as humanity confronts the current and future crisis of damage to our climate, we commit ourselves with an urgent sense of calling. We desire that these deeply felt commitments be reflected in all the dimensions of our congregation's life. We desire that we launch ourselves beyond the walls of this church to make good on our promises to God our Creator, to Jesus the Redeemer of Creation, and to the Holy Spirit the Sustainer of Creation.

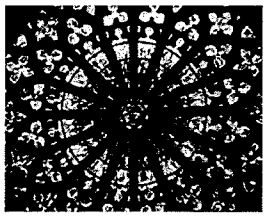
Were You There?



Thirty Years Ago: A hymn festival on March 4 featured the Gwynedd Square Presbyterian Church Choir along with St, John's singers, ringers, and instrumentalists.

Twenty-five Years Ago: Church Council approved the purchase of the robes currently worn by the Chancel Choir. Matching robes were ordered for the Acolytes.

Twenty Years Ago: Chuck Favata, Computer Specialist at Council Rock School District and St. John's member, gave a presentation on Internet safety for parents of young children.

Fifteen Years Ago: The Maundy Thursday Service on March 24 was a Tenebrae Service with a new format—The Confirmation Class participated as worship leaders.

Ten Years Ago: All youth were invited to join in Laser Tag on March 14 at Laser Quest Arena in Reading.

Five Years Ago: The Juniata College Concert Choir presented "A cappella Music from Several Cultures and Traditions" at 8 PM on March 20.

One Year Ago: Our church supported four overseas children for many years. Nickole Florence Inog was our youngster in the Philippines. In March 2019, she completed her education through high school. She turned 18, and the church's support ends at that milestone, but she was able to complete her first year of college with additional help beyond St. John's.

Join The Creation Justice Team

St. John's is forming a Creation Justice Team to join a UCC initiative that aims to focus efforts on protecting God's creations and to address income inequality and environmental discrimination. While St. John's currently does a lot of great work already in these areas, this initiative will have us examine what other steps we can take as a church or as individuals to address these concerns.

The Creation Justice Team, after an initial meeting, will be a no-meeting group, hoping to develop the program through virtual meetings. If you would like to join our group, contact Don Atkiss at datkiss@comcast.net (215-872-7487) or Deb Dayton at dkdayton@gmail.com (267-222-0887).

Faith That Works: A Practical Guide to Including Our Faith in Everyday Life.

The Lenten Study begins on Wednesday evening, March 4, at 7:30 PM in the Library, and will include the following Wednesday evenings: March 11, March 25, and April 1. All are welcome to be part of this learning opportunity, even if you cannot attend every Wednesday evening. The study will be "hands on," inviting participants to become involved in discovering what they might do as they go about their daily routines to include their faith and beliefs in ways that are life-changing and life-giving.

If you could know the truth about the threat of climate change—would you want to know? Before the Flood, presented by National Geographic, features Leonardo DiCaprio on a journey as a United Nations Messenger of Peace, traveling to five continents and the Arctic to witness climate change firsthand. He goes on expeditions with scientists uncovering the reality of climate change and meets with political leaders fighting against inaction. He also discovers a calculated disinformation campaign orchestrated by powerful special interests working to confuse the public about the urgency of the growing climate crisis. With unprecedented access to thought leaders around the world, DiCaprio searches for hope in a rising tide of catastrophic news.

Wonder what stewardship is about? This might help.

Stew: This can be a situation that causes anxiety. Also, it is a combination of solid food ingredients that have been cooked in a liquid and served in the resulting gravy.

Ward: Someone or something that has been placed in protection. You then take responsibility for that protection.

Ship: A large vessel that is manned by various individuals who keep her afloat and safe. The passengers can be very few or number in the thousands. There are times when the voyage is peaceful and calm and other times when it is so rough you wish you weren't on board.

St. John's can be considered a ship, with many different types of people as its crew. These people have different skills needed to keep her on a true course. This ship also can be considered a ward. We have accepted responsibility for this ship and all the things that go on within it. The ship likewise has a responsibility to us for our safety, whether it is physical or financial. The stew is the cool part. We have people of different backgrounds and on different journeys, but when the pot needs stirring, all usually grab a spoon.

There have been ships that have gone under because of a lack of stew or crew. We are lucky that our Captain keeps us heading in the right direction. But every once in a while a crew member needs some help manning the kettle–that's why we have the best Captain and First Mate. Our responsibility does not end when we disembark, it continues with our stirring as well as helping with the barnacles. It does not matter whether we steer or help in the galley, all hands are needed.

So remember–when you leave on a vacation the ship remains in dock. It keeps the food hot for when you need it. And how about that MOTLEY CREW! I have been sailing with this ship for quite a long time, and I haven't gone hungry or fallen overboard yet.

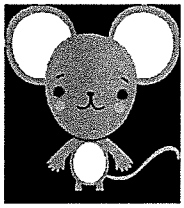
News From The Pews



While it may be hard to believe, the season of Lent has begun and the holidays we celebrated not long ago now feel like a distant memory. I know they say as we grow older, time passes more quickly (and I suspect that is even more true for those of us who are four-legged critters), but wow—this little church mouse can barely keep up! Ah well, Lent is the perfect time to catch our breath, to pause, and to focus on listening for God amid our busy lives. Come to think of it, I have a feeling this year's Lenten Study just might help us do that . . .

I noticed that Rev. Sue has titled the Lenten Study "Faith That Works: A Practical Guide to Including Our Faith in Everyday Life." When she was describing it to Church Council members at a recent meeting, she indicated that the study was going to be "hands on," inviting participants to become involved in discovering what they might do as they go about their daily routines to include their faith and beliefs in ways that are life-changing and life-giving.

The Lenten Study begins on Wednesday evening, March 4, at 7:30 PM in the Library, and will include the following Wednesday evenings: March 11, March 25, and April 1. All are welcome to be part of this learning opportunity, even if you cannot attend every Wednesday evening. I know I'm planning to be on board because, contrary to what some believe, you can teach an old church mouse new tricks!

I would be remiss if I didn't also mention that there will be a Member Appreciation breakfast on March 15. What began years ago as a breakfast for ushers, then evolved into a breakfast for all volunteers, is now a breakfast to which everyone is invited—including this little church mouse. YAY! It will be served after both worship services that morning, and I happen to know that the Deacons have sought the expertise of Chef Steve (Bossert) to use his talents to create some special offerings for the morning feast. You won't want to miss it, and I promise to save plenty for you.

Please join me during the season of Lent in the life of St. John's as we each, in our own way, do our best to live out the faith that drew us all together in the first place and keeps our wonderfully motley crew going strong!
