November 2022 Vol. XLII, No. 09

Fall is a season of transition, both for our natural world, and for our church community. As we continue to welcome Pastor Dale, I wanted to take the opportunity to put in context his work and time with us during this interim period. When Pastor Dale, first stepped on the scene, I jokingly referred to him as "Mary Poppins," flying in when we needed him most, with the intention of spending some very intentional time with us, and then moving along "when the wind changes" and we felt ready to move forward into our future.

It turns out, my Mary Poppins metaphor, while humorous and charming, does fit what Dale's purpose is in joining our church community during this tender and pivotal time. Much like the beloved character does with the Banks family to whom she comes, Pastor Dale comes to us with a purpose in this time of transition ~ not simply to be a placeholder or to intentionally change who we are or what we do, but to come alongside of us as we decide for ourselves who God has created us to be now, and in the years ahead. He is here to join in leading worship and providing pastoral care, yes, but he is also here to learn about us very intentionally as individuals and as a community, to help us evaluate and assess our needs and our wants, and to provide a new, helpful perspective in our time of discernment.

I know St. John's to be a community that leans into Jesus' call for us to "keep it real," opting for honesty and integrity over that which is disingenuous. During Pastor Dale's time with us, during his intentional meetings with individuals, families, and small groups, I will count on you to keep being the wonderfully motley crew that you are ~ colorful, open to change and growth, welcoming, authentic, loving, honest, nurturing, and true. Personally speaking, it has been a joy to work, laugh, and dream with Pastor Dale and I know that if we continue to invest in our time together, it will be, in a word, "supercalifragilisticexpialidocious."

Rev. Addie

I just love Pastor Addie's image of being compared to Mary Poppins when it comes to my role at St. John's as Interim Senior Pastor. I suppose I should have floated down into the sanctuary holding my umbrella on my first Sunday at St. John's! And Addie is right, I have dropped into your world; and not as a "placeholder," but as one whom the St. John's Transition Team has called to lead the congregation during a particular time. It's important that you have a sense of what an "Interim," or "Transitional" Pastor actually does. Below you'll find a thumbnail summary of some of the tasks I'll be working with on you all as you reflect, think, pray, and prepare for your next Senior Pastor. And just like Pastor Addie wrote, when my intentional time with you comes to an end, I'll fly away as the wind of God will have brought you a new Pastor, and new beginning! So here are some of the tasks involved with interim ministry:

- Bring whatever stability and dependability this or any congregation may need as it experiences transition
- Facilitate the congregation in identifying and articulating its Identity, Purpose (Mission), and Future Direction (The UCC Profile, a tool for pastoral searches, employs the following questions: Who are we now? Who is our neighbor? Who is God calling us to become?)
- Help in the process of surfacing and identifying the core values held by St. John's; those that are implicit within the fabric of the congregation, as well as those that could be considered aspirational
- Help the congregation and its leaders arrive at a "Vision" that is compelling, future oriented, as well as owned and celebrated. "What does the congregation want to see happen?"
- Aid in helping the congregation identify key trends over the last decade (both internal and external)
- Educate the congregation in terms of what is happening in American church life
- Frame key questions for church leadership such as: "Who are we reaching? Who are we missing, and why?"
- Support the Associate pastor and Minister of Music in their making explicit their individual passion, vision, and aspirations
- Note: There are lots of assessments that come with interim ministry, including the surfacing of assumptions, "habits," and determining a congregation's tolerance for meaningful change

Rev. Sue's Favorite Children's Books

Have you seen the bookcase of children's books in our church library, under the portrait of Rev. Sue? These 42 books were a gift to honor her 42 years of ministry. You can easily tell which books are in this special collection by the lavender strip on the spine of each book, which reads, "A Rev. Sue Favorite."

Rev. Sue often drew inspiration, messages, and quotes from children's literature, including these books.

You'll find all kinds of books, from poetry to biographies to humor to mythology in this collection...something for everyone! Use the purple notebook and purple pen to sign out the book of your choice. Won't you please return it after a week so others may also enjoy it? Thank you!

Every month, three books will be highlighted in The Enlightener to help familiarize you with these terrific books.

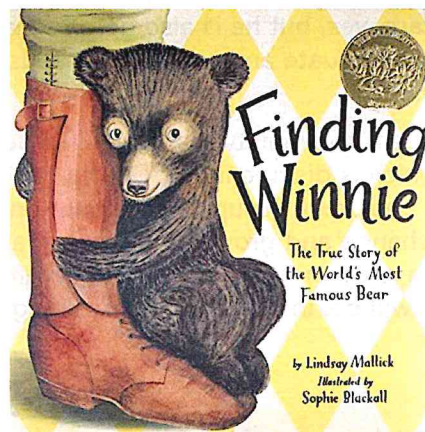

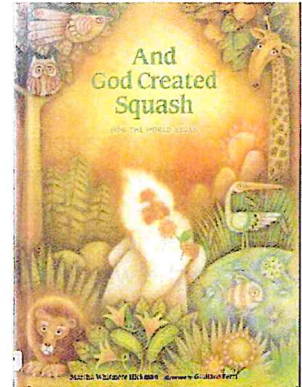

The Giving Tree by Shel Silverstein

A good book to use as a starting point to discuss healthy vs. unhealthy relationships. Is the apple tree generous or self-sacrificing? This famous, thought-provoking story is not as simple as it first appears.

And God Created Squash by Martha

W. Hickman

A whimsical retelling of the Biblical story of Creation

Finding Winnie: The True Story of the World's Most Famous Bear by Lindsay Mattick

Quotable, full of love and history, and a true story within a true story.

Rosie, age 7, says, "The vet loved the bear so much that he sent him away, where he'd be safe, even though he'd miss the bear. That's kindness."

Our thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends of Carolyn Haas, a friend of Scott Vanderburg's, and Dennis Masten, who passed away recently.

Notes From Church Council

Financial Report, Matt Carson:

September was another slow month for St. John's. Total income of $36,639.33 fell short of our expenses of $43,606.75. The shortfall is attributed to low tithes and offerings of $23,499.75. The prior 6-year average for giving in September is $27,236.20.

Looking at annual income and expenses, we have received total income year-to-date of $296,539.21 plus an investment transfer of $88,366.00, leaving us with a deficit is $42,926.

Our 2022 commitment to OCWM is $48,272 for the year, or $3,364 per month. September donations were $2,428.00, bringing us to $30,874.00 year-to-date.

Please feel free to share your questions or concerns with Matt Carson, Treasurer.

I am grateful to Dale, Andrew, Lisa, and Leroy, our church leadership, and the supportive congregation for making it possible to get away.

Old Business:

PAR Recycling Event, Bill Leslie

The St. John's/PAR Electronics event held on September 24 was quite a success! PAR (People Advancing Reintegration) did a great job organizing and collecting lots of electronics

We had over 20 volunteers to help the PAR folks unload and sort electronics and collect Manna donations. We actually had too many volunteers! So, in St. John's fashion, we were able to socialize with each other. The 10:15-ers mingled with the 8:00-ers. We got to meet members we hadn't known before. It was a lot of fun!

We filled 1½ trailer trucks full of electronics. PAR saves parts where needed, then recycles the rest responsibly. We also collected an SUV-full of donations for Manna.

And, to top it all off, we did an E-A-G-L-E-S cheer with all but one of the PAR folks (a Giants fan!).

Thanks to all the St. John's volunteers for helping. I think Reverend Sue was smiling from the Labyrinth Garden.

Search and Call Update, Liz Rivett

We have provided information and signup sheets for Small Group Sessions with Pastor Dale. Please sign up for a session that is scheduled or contact Dale to set another date/time/location with friends or family.

This is a great opportunity to reach out to members or friends who have not been present on Sundays to ensure they have an opportunity to engage and be heard.

Soon the transition team will work with Dale to assemble a team to create St. John's Ministerial Profile, which will be posted to recruit our next Settled Pastor. The creation of the Profile is as much about the journey as it is about the end result. It will challenge us to carefully reflect on who we are today, who is our neighbor, and who is God calling us to be and serve. Anyone interested in contributing to the Profile will have the opportunity to do so, whether directly, as a member of the Profile team, or through other methods. The Small Group Sessions are a start on this journey. The Profile is not a confidential document.

Once the Profile is completed, the Elders, along with about three members of the congregation at large, will form a Search Committee. This is the team responsible for reviewing candidate profiles and conducting initial interviews. The Search Committee will then present a candidate to Council for a vote. If Council approves, the congregation will have an opportunity to hear the candidate preach and then vote on the candidate.

We have not created a timeline for this process to unfold yet. We are all taking a collective deep breath, allowing Pastor Dale to settle in with us, and us to settle in with him. The Transition Team is in conversation with Dale, and we will be sure to continue to communicate what unfolds next. We are approaching a very busy and sacred part of the Church year, and we want to be sure that we have the physical, mental, and spiritual strength to start this journey.

Role and Purpose of an Interim Pastor

Dale Davis

It might be natural to think of an interim pastor (in this case, an Interim Senior Pastor) functioning as a “placeholder” until a search team can begin its role in calling a new pastor. However, the role of an interim pastor is more involved than simply filling a temporary void. Below is a list of some typical outcomes for which an interim pastor is engaged:

- Bring the stability and dependability a congregation needs as it experiences transition
- Facilitate the congregation in identifying and articulating its Identity, Purpose (Mission), and Future Direction. The UCC Ministerial Profile, a tool for pastoral searches, asks these questions: Who are we now? Who is our neighbor? Who is God calling us to become?
- Help in surfacing and identifying the core values held by St. John’s—those implicit within the fabric of the congregation as well as those that could be considered aspirational
- Help the congregation and its leaders arrive at a Vision that is compelling, future oriented, owned, and celebrated. What does the congregation want to see happen?
- Help the congregation identify key trends over the past decade, internal and external: SWOT (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities, Threats) MissionInsite (demographics, population trends, projected concerns)
- Educating the congregation in terms of what is happening in American church life
- Frame key questions for church leadership, such as “Who are we reaching? Who are we missing, and why?”
- Support the Associate Pastor and Minister of Music in making explicit their individual passion, vision, and aspirations
- There are many assessments that come with interim ministry—surfacing of assumptions and habits, and determining a congregation’s tolerance for meaningful change

Chancel Flower Ministry

Thank you for being a part of this important ministry. Many lives have been touched by your efforts. Flowers should be delivered after the 10:15 AM church service or on Monday. Feel free to deliver the flowers to whomever you want—anyone who is celebrating a birthday or an anniversary, people who are ill, people who are in the hospital, people who need a little extra care. The people you deliver to do not need to be members of St. John's. They can be your friends, loved ones, and neighbors. The flower ministry is part of our outreach. The flower room is through the door on the left side of the chancel—the side where the pastor preaches. All the supplies you will need are in this room: plastic vases, St. John's Address Directory, and cards. Please take the flowers out of the brass vases and put them in the plastic floral containers located on the shelves in the flower room. Leave the plastic liners in the brass vases, they belong to the florist. Please include a card for each bouquet. There will be a copy of these instructions in the flower room. If you are out of town on your assigned Sunday, please switch with someone. Again, many thanks for being a part of St. John's flower ministry.

We will be decorating the church for the Advent Season on Saturday, November 26th, at 9:30 AM. Please plan to join us in making the church festive for the holidays. Coffee and light refreshments will be provided.

Were You There?

Thirty Years Ago: The Enrichment Program showed Junior Choir-aged children how to ring handbells.

Twenty-five Years Ago: We began renovating the Assembly Hall, with a projected completion date of April 1998.

Twenty Years Ago: Pastor Russ Clark bade St. John's farewell after two years as interim pastor. We welcomed Rev. Lori Esslinger as our new part-time interim pastor.

Fifteen Years Ago: The celebration of the 50th anniversary of the formation of the United Church of Christ concluded with an All Saints' Sunday webcast on November 4.

Ten Years Ago: St. John's Artist Series celebrated its 25th season with Horns and Strings! with music by composers such as Vivaldi, Albinoni, Dvorak, and more.

Five Years Ago: Published in "Were You There": Everything one needs to know may be learned from Noah's Ark!

One: Don't miss the boat.

Two: Remember that we are all in the same boat!

Three: Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah started building the Ark.

Four: Stay fit. When you're 80 years old, someone may ask you to do something really big and maybe strenuous.

Five: Don't listen to critics; just get on with the job that needs to be done.

Six: Build your future on high ground.

Seven: For safety's sake, travel in pairs.

Eight: Speed isn't always an advantage. The snails were on board the Ark with the cheetahs.

Nine: When you're stressed, just float awhile.

Ten: Remember: The Ark was built by amateurs; the Titanic by professionals.

Eleven: No matter the storm, there's always a rainbow waiting!

Letter from Alyanna in The Philippines

Alyanna Jean Calumba is finally back to school after two years of studying at home due to COVID. The Outreach Team thanks all who have contributed to our sponsorship of Alyanna, as well as Isaiah and Yashi, and a student from Urban Promise in Camden, New Jersey. A special thanks to all who contributed so generously to our recent Change for the Children offering.

We recently received this letter from Alyanna Jean:

Dear Auntie Pat and all my sponsors at St. John's UCC,

It's another great day to write a letter for all of you! How was your day going? I hope it is really going well. Our classes for this school year started last August 22. My first day of school was nice, but I was a bit nervous. I was still in Grade 6 when COVID started and it has been two years since the last time I have gone to school. It was amazing to be able to go to school after a long time. I am happy to share with you that I have joined the Supreme Student Government representing Grade 8 students. This is really a new and challenging responsibility for me.

In my church, I've joined Glad Tidings Choir (GTC). We practice every Friday and Saturday afternoon in preparation for the Sunday worship. Me and my sister have also joined a Bible study for the youth. Last August, we had a camp which is one town away from our place. I am happy to make new friends, and they were so kind and nice. Unfortunately, some of us were not allowed to spend the night with the rest because we are not yet vaccinated. Last Sunday was Youth Sunday, and we had a celebration. We called it Youth Jam where all young people gathered together. I and my friends are the leaders in dancing, and we had activities related to reflection and sharing and we really enjoyed it.

Thank you very much also for the money that you sent for the payment of the internet time. The laptop is so helpful for my schooling. We are now having face to face classes, but not all of us are going to school at the same time. We are given assignments and projects, and we do a lot of research.

Please extend my greetings to all members of the church as well as our sincere gratefulness of your continuing support and assistance for me and my family. God bless you and your families.

Sending love from The Philippines, Alyanna Jean

Thank you to Dan Panachyda for providing Alyanna with a computer, and to those who contribute to pay for her internet time. Alyanna's leader at Kalauman Center has told us, "I can only assure you all that she really deserves it."
